1. International Instruments

The international copyright legal environment is a complex one, dominated by a few key intergovernmental agreements. Click here for links to these agreements.

2. International Institutions, Organisations, Centres

To link to the pages of internationally-focussed institutions, organisations and centres operating in the copyright field, click here.

2. African National Copyright Laws

For a look at copyright instruments at the national level in Africa, click here.

4. African Centres, Projects

There are now several African research centres and projects focusing on intellectual property, access to knowledge and innovation on the continent. Click here for links to these centres and projects.

5. Literature

Several organisations and authors have produced useful articles, reports and submissions on copyright in the digital era in the developing world. Click here for links to this literature.
6. Blogs, Information Services

Click here for copyright-related blogs and information services.